

April 3, 2016

SPRING TRAVEL DESTINATIONS

Jackson Hole, WY

Jackson Hole is not just for skiing - celebrate the National Park Service's 100th anniversary this spring! Springtime brings prime wildlife viewing in Yellowstone National Park and Spring Creek Ranch is the right place to stay. The ranch has a team of Naturalists who lead guests through the park to give them an intimate nature experience, without the crowds. In the spring, the resort offers the "Rising Stars of Wyoming Package," where guests will see the most popular mammals calving, birds migrating, bears emerge from their seasonal slumber, and more. The package is $645/person and includes 3 nights lodging in a deluxe hotel room with wood burning fireplace, breakfast daily, plus the all-day safari as well as evening stargazing with the PHD Astronomers of Wyoming Stargazing. Flights with one stop from Chicago to Jackson Hole start at $539 RT in April.